Fire in Prison

LOUISVILLE, Dec [illegible]—A fire [illegible] prison [illegible] the building occupied as a working and machine shop [illegible] & Gaff, prison contractors. The [illegible] was filled with [illegible] working machinery the property of [illegible] and valued at about [illegible]. The [illegible] able nature of the building [illegible] the shavings. A report that the prison was on fire caused a great number of people to gather at the prison doors [illegible] were evidently of the opinion that the prisoners were roasting alive. [illegible] The fire department aided the prison department in subduing the flames, but [illegible] of the machinery was saved. The only service the fire department could render was to save the adjoining buildings. The convicts behaved well. The loss to [illegible] & Gaff will amount to between $[illegible] and $[illegible] while the state's losses on the building are not of much value. The companies in which [illegible] & Gaff are insured are not known as they had quarters in Cincinnati.

Railroad Accidents

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 26—While a train consisting of [illegible] cars was ascending the eastern approach of the bridge at 9 30 to-night 17 cars broke loose, and dashed down the grade at full speed. When opposite Relay depot [illegible] encountered a freight train on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy track and a number of cars of both trains smashed to pieces. Charles Roots engineer, A. Jones [illegible] and Harry Easton, conductor of the C. B. & Q. train, George Gray, switchman, [illegible] Osborne employe at the Round House, were badly injured and [illegible] man, name not ascertained, slightly.

The President and his Son.

A Practical Joke.

[illegible], Dec. 27—John M Waite and M [illegible] both prominent and respected business men, this afternoon thinking to play a [illegible] joke upon a colored janitor, disarranged the contents of Mr Waite's room and [illegible] concealing themselves in a closet, waited [illegible] the janitor appeared. The latter became excited at the condition of the room [illegible] a revolver, and hearing a noise in [illegible] tried to pull the door open and [illegible] that, fired through the door. The [illegible] through Mr Gould's head, and he [illegible] after.

Universal Peace.

[illegible], Dec 26—Grant was waited [illegible] by members of the Universal Peace [illegible] to-day and replied to the earnest plea [illegible] in which Grant said that, although he had been brought up to the profession of arms and had participated in nearly [illegible] of the war there never was a [illegible] in his opinion, there was not [illegible] of preventing the drawing of the [illegible] looked forward to the day when [illegible] would be established a court which [illegible] recognized by all nations and which [illegible] looked to for the settlement of such [illegible] of opinion as might exist. He [illegible] his travels he found that there [illegible] great a desire abroad for such a [illegible]. So far as the eastern question [illegible] concerned, he said he thought it would [illegible] before the nations would consent to [illegible] by arbitration. All countries [illegible] trading with the east, and each is [illegible] jealous of the other. He did not [illegible] there was any cause for fear that the [illegible] of the society would fail however, [illegible] Mrs. Dr Sarah T Rodgers then [illegible] the general with a large portrait of [illegible] Mott. This ended the reception [illegible] handshaking the general withdrew.

He Receives the Clergy.

[illegible] members of the Peace Union had hardly [illegible] when a delegation of seventy five [illegible] clergymen entered. In a few moments General Grant came into the room [illegible] by Bishop Simpson and George W [illegible]. The bishop introduced the delegation. [illegible] Rev Dr Henry Warren delivered an address [illegible] which the general was called on for [illegible]. Turning to Dr Warren he said [illegible] no doubt about the loyalty of the [illegible] church in the north, and there [illegible] doubt of its disloyalty in the south. [illegible] true of the loyalty of the Methodist [illegible] in the north might be said in regard [illegible] churches of other denominations with [illegible] perhaps, the same unanimity enough [illegible] to save them. Those present were [illegible] personally presented to General Grant.

The Butchers' and Packers' Strike

[illegible], Dec 26—The first brigade was [illegible] arms early this morning prepared to [illegible] to the stock yards in case their services [illegible] called for. Toward noon however [illegible] being quiet they were dismissed [illegible] orders to reassemble for duty at [illegible] evening. At the stock yards [illegible] have resumed work with [illegible] 800 non union [illegible]. Eighty seven of [illegible] the union [illegible] and all of them signed an [illegible] to join no union [illegible] the firm.

[illegible], Dec 27—It is altogether likely [illegible] strike will end with the year [illegible] and that [illegible] will begin [illegible] week. As yet the [illegible] spirits of [illegible] for their daily sustenance. [illegible] ve trading an [illegible] of the union [illegible] helping them [illegible] patent arguments with families and [illegible] of families who are [illegible] packing interest. I would not [illegible] to predict the union will [illegible] or disband entirely before many [illegible]. The packers are thoroughly in earnest. [illegible] of them claim that the whole affair has [illegible] got up by parties interested in developing trade in St Louis, Cincinnati and Milwaukee but they express no fear that the [illegible] will ultimately be diverted from [illegible].

Agnes D. Jenks wants a Position—Polygamy—Gas Stocks and Edison's Light, Etc., Etc.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK, Dec 27—Among the callers on Collector Merritt yesterday was [illegible] D Jenks [illegible] It was [illegible] to the New York custom house [illegible] [illegible].

The Herald on Polygamy

The Herald says [illegible] subject to the map [illegible] the ground that [illegible] any question [illegible] it not time that [illegible] word [illegible] was made [illegible] of [illegible] Mormon territory.

The Ship Canal

The Tribune has the following: Projectors of the Nicaragua ship canal are likely to be kept in an uncomfortable condition of suspense until Grant's return from his tour in the tropics. He neither answers yea nor nay to their solicitations. The French capital is offered on the condition that he shall take the direction of the enterprise, and no great amount of American capital can be raised as the question of the management and with it that of foreign aid is unsettled. Meanwhile Lesseps is on his way across the ocean with his equipments of men and material to test the possibilities of the Panama route. As matters now look he will be able to get to work exploring the quality of isthmus rocks with his new fashioned drills without being haunted by the spectre of a rival American company digging across the little Nicaraguan republic to unite the two oceans by the better route than chosen by the Paris congress.

The New Light.

Edison's electric light process is causing more or less excitement among the gas companies. President Place, of the Mutual Gas Light Company, said yesterday that probably the principal reason why gas stocks had fallen was because of the strong competition between the companies, lower price of gas had prevented the payment of dividends. The newspaper articles on Edison's electric light had frightened some timid holders. The heaviest stockholders in the company were not frightened, however. They had yet to see Edison's invention put to a practical test nor did they believe that his electric light could successfully compete with gas. The presidents of the other companies on being interviewed expressed similar sentiments.

NEW YORK, Dec 27—The electrical inventor Brush also disparages Edison's asserted perfection of the electric light and says the same ground has been worked over by a great many able experimenters but nothing practicable in this line has ever appeared. The apparatus or lamp has never been made durable, and is always liable to fail at any moment, owing to destruction of the incandescent matter. There is nothing to indicate that Edison has made any improvement in this direction, but even if an incandescent burner either of platinum or carbon could be so constructed as to be entirely trustworthy, of which there is no present prospect, the applicability of this system of lighting would be very limited indeed on account of the great amount of electrical energy necessary for the production of even a small light by this means. Brush contends that Edison's machine is a poor copy of a generator that is common enough abroad.

The Walking Match.

The walking match, which is to end to-night is attracting more attention than for a day or two past. Negro Hart is well ahead and is likely to win. He had the sympathy of all classes including those who regard a walking match as a nuisance. Attention is directed to the fact that several of the contestants are likely to beat the best time on record heretofore made and at the very lowest fifteen will make at least 450 miles. Comparing this week's walk with last week's it is remarkable that already seven times as many men have fallen out of the six day race as there were women who withdrew under like circumstances. There are now fewer men contending of the 65 who started than there were left of walking women on the 6th day out of only 25 who had started.

NEW YORK, Dec 27—The day opened in Madison Square Garden with only sixteen pedestrians remaining in the race in which sixty-five started on Sunday night last. Hart was vigorously applauded as he turned his 500th mile, shortly after 11 o'clock. Krohne was likewise loudly cheered as he accomplished the same distance, less than an hour later. Faber was third and negro Pegram fourth. Hart 501½ miles, Krohne 498¼, Faber 495¼.

Reception of Parnell.

The sub-committee of the executive committee charged with the preparation of an address to Charles Stuart Parnell M P president of the Irish Land League, met to-day. Hon. W E Robinson presiding, and John E Hennessy secretary. An address was adopted and will be presented on board the Scythia on her arrival at this port. It was decided to hold a public meeting in Gilmore's Garden to receive Mr Parnell at which he will state his views on the Irish question.

Fire.

The tinware factory of Enoch Ketchum South Second and Twelfth streets, Williamsburg, was burned to-night. The loss on the building, machinery and stock is $100 000.

Non-suited.

NEW YORK, Dec 27—The suit begun September 20th, 1877, by the United States against Gen John C Fremont to recover $1108 claimed to have been erroneously paid him as Major General of the United States Army from May 14 1861 to July 16th of the same year has been discontinued. District attorney Woodford in a letter to the solicitor of the treasury gave as his reasons for discontinuing the suit that the General had failed to file the acceptance of his appointment and the alleged offence was merely technical.

Recorder Hackett Dead.

NEW YORK, Dec 26—Recorder Hackett well known in California, died about 12 30 to-day at his residence on Park avenue. He was taken ill while presiding in the court of general sessions on the 1st of October 1879 and has not since appeared on the bench. During the last four months he had been confined to his house.

WASHINGTON, Dec 26—In the matter of the contested application for the grant of [illegible] by the government for the town site of [illegible] North [illegible] commissioner of the general land office decides that according to the testimony the land applied for is valuable for minerals and that therefore is subject to location under the mining acts. The application for a town site patent is accordingly rejected.

The Electoral College.

From recent democratic members of the house it is the opinion that nothing will be done at this session of congress to provide any new method for the counting of electoral votes for president. It is remarked that as the two houses are now in accord there will probably be no difficulty in determining a plan at the next session in case the result of the election next November threatens to give rise to complications which cannot be met under the system which prevailed up to the time of the creation of the electoral commission.

Socialists in Convention.

ALLEGHANY CITY Pa Dec 26—Forty representatives of the national socialistic democratic party met here to-day. Reports of an encouraging character were read after which they adjourned till to-morrow.

Tilden and Hendricks

CHICAGO Dec 26—The Times Washington special gives a brief history of the secret understanding between the friends of Tilden and Hendricks when the latter accepted the nomination for the vice presidency. This understanding was to the effect that Hendricks should have a clear field in 1880 provided he would accept the nomination in 1876. Gov Hendricks accepted only with that understanding, and Tilden was then pledged by his friends to support Hendricks in 1880. After the decision of the electoral commission it was learned that Tilden did not consider himself bound by the agreement while Hendricks friends insisted on its fulfillment. Dorsheimer who was then Tilden's friend but now his bitter enemy, and Tammany always the enemies of Tilden, intend to stick to their word to support Hendricks.

Bayard's Resolution.

The Tribune's Washington special says that Senator Bayard will endeavor after the recess to have his financial resolution reported back to the senate from the finance committee, and he will then speak upon it at length. He is now making careful preparation for this speech, and will frame his arguments with a view to the meeting of the democratic national convention. Bayard's friends say that he will be thoroughly prepared to reply to the different senators who are said to have agreed to make a combined attack upon him.

An Ohio Man.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27—It is confidently asserted here to-day that the appointment of Gen Charles Ewing to be governor of Utah territory has been definitely decided upon. Although a brother of Gen. Tom Ewing, he is an uncompromising republican. This report is probably premature, but Ewing is very strongly supported, and his chances for the appointment seem to be increasing daily. The president said yesterday to some of Gov Emery's friends that he would reappoint him if he believed Emery did not sympathize with polygamy and Mormonism and he believed that Emery was the man for an emergency in case one should occur in Utah. The intimation of this remark was of course that he did not so believe. There is no doubt that the polygamists are henceforth to be vigorously prosecuted, and it is understood here that district attorney Vanzile, who has the proceedings in charge, complains that he has not had the full sympathy and support of Emery.

Inspection.

The Russian Mission.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27—The report that Gov Vanzandt, of Rhode Island, had been tendered the Russian mission is generally credited, and it may be considered practically certain that he has accepted the position. He was an ardent Bristow man three years ago and after President Hayes election became a very active supporter of his southern policy accompanying the president in his celebrated tour through Kentucky and Tennessee in June, 1877 and making conciliation speeches. Vanzandt's departure for Russia will clear the way for Gen Burnside's re-election to the senate, Vanzandt being his only formidable competitor.

Pennsylvania Politics.

A very shrewd political observer, who has been spending some time recently in Philadelphia says there is undoubtedly an organized movement to secure for Senator Bayard the support of the Pennsylvania delegation in the next democratic national convention, and that it is quietly gaining much strength. Neither Speaker Randall nor Senator Wallace approve the movement. The former it is said still inclines to favor Tilden, while the latter is an enthusiastic advocate of General Hancock. The same informant says the republican politicians of Philadelphia are generally pronounced Grant men but that Blaine has many strong, and influential friends in Philadelphia and a devotedly attached following throughout the state sufficiently numerous to make him unquestionably the choice of Pennsylvania republicans unless their preferences are overborne by political manipulation of the party managers.

HIS PROPOSED ROUTE.

Grant's Movements—His Proposed Visit to Cuba and Mexico.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

WASHINGTON Dec 26—Gen Grant upon his arrival in this city from Philadelphia to-morrow evening will not be publicly received, although a number of his friends will meet him at the depot. He intends to proceed immediately to Gen Beale's country residence and remain there quietly during his stay except that he will probably come into town Sunday [illegible] returning to Philadelphia on Monday. He will start for Cuba on Tuesday via Richmond, Charleston, Savannah and Cedar Keys [illegible] stopping [illegible] patches.

A friend suggested to General Grant in Philadelphia that on account of the policy of his administration toward Cuba during its struggle for independence there might be some ill feeling cherished toward him by the Spanish [illegible]. He replied [illegible] [illegible] by the home government.

GOV. GARCELON'S LETTER TO EX-GOV MORRILL

Indignation Meetings—Resolutions—Arms Removed—To Go to the Courts—Latest Particulars

[illegible]

NEW YORK, Dec [illegible]—The Maine troubles [illegible] New York press. The [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] and [illegible] of Maine and [illegible] [illegible] with a [illegible].

The other [illegible] journals [illegible] [illegible] similarly.

The [illegible] says that Garfield fully realizes the plight of his party in Maine and in its hope of creating favorable public sentiment. [illegible] right he [illegible] to Ohio to [illegible] republican politicians to get up indignation meetings in that state. Those who know Garcelon here predict that he will maintain the law and assert his authority at all hazards.

The Tribune, which is a fair sample of republican opinion says: In the present state of public feeling in Maine every good citizen will deplore any act which tends to increase the general bitterness and provoke a conflict. Perhaps it would have been better for the peaceful solution of the controversy if the ammunition wagons had been able to leave Bangor without attracting attention, but it was natural and justifiable that the citizens of that place should be indignant upon finding that extraordinary measure of moving munitions of war through the city in time of peace was being executed at the mere verbal request of the state government to the clerk who could show no written authority. It is not strange that the people of Maine should grow apprehensive—with these clandestine transfers of arms and ammunition in progress, and should suspect that their rights may be in still greater jeopardy than they have yet encountered. At the same time they should remember that the man who keeps his temper always has the best of a quarrel. This is a country of law and order and law will rule even in Maine eventually if not immediately. Everything goes to show that Garcelon is losing the support of the best democrats. Two wrongs do not make a right but one wrong left to itself will work upon the public mind until right is reached.

Indignation Meetings.

DAMARISCOTTA Me Dec 25—The indignation meeting this afternoon was attended by a large audience every town in the county being represented, some coming 15 or 20 miles notwithstanding extreme cold. General Joseph A Hall spoke at length, the closing portion of his speech being as follows:

Believing that a patriotic sense of duty on the part of the people will bring us out of this trouble my voice is now for peace, decidedly against force, but fellow citizens, when the approach of anarchy and destruction of civil liberty shall stand upon one side and their prevention by force stands up on the other when the laws shall be no longer of avail and the courts become powerless to give us justice, then I am for resorting to the last great right of freemen and assuming the responsibility go forward like men who knowing their duty in the hour of peril dare perform it, letting the consequences fall where they justly must upon those who forced us to the dread reality.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved That while we earnestly desire a peaceful adjustment of this unfortunate state of things at the same time we request senator-elect Smith and Representative-elect Hall to use every means in their power to obtain their seats to which the voters called them at the organization of the legislature and should they not be able to do this we request them to join in organizing the legislature at some place where the majority of both branches as duly elected can carry out the expressed will of the people.

Resolved That we pledge our lawfully elected senators and representatives throughout the state our earnest support in whatever course they may decide to follow trusting that legal measures may accomplish what is just and right and that force this last great right of freemen, may not become necessary.

Indignation meetings have been held at various points throughout the state to-night and addresses were made by prominent citizens and others of leading local influence. There were conferences at Biddeford, North Berwick, Rockland, Calais, Lewiston and other places. Adherents of all political parties were in attendance.

The Feeling at Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Dec 26—The attempt to take from the arsenal in Bangor the arms and ammunition there and bring the same here was not generally known in this city until to-day. On Christmas night a team was in waiting at the railroad station here to receive the contents of the state arsenal in order to convey them to the state house. The excitement here was intense. The wildest rumors prevailed until the true account was received. It was rumored during the day that the Capitol Guards were ordered out but there was no truth in the report. Then it was said that the Montgomery Guards, of Portland, would be here by the afternoon train, but they did not put in an appearance. Gov Garcelon reached the city this afternoon. Only two of his councilors were here so no business was transacted. Garcelon was seen to-night and said he knew nothing farther of the Bangor affair than what had appeared in the papers, that for judicious reasons he had ordered French verbally to remove the arms and ammunition and he thought the whole matter was one of great discredit to the city of Bangor.

Precautionary

At a special meeting of the city government in the afternoon it was voted to increase the police force of the city to 200 men to provide against trouble.

Meeting at Lewiston.

At Lewiston 3000 people attended a meeting. Ex Gov Dingley, Congressman Frye and others addressed the meeting. Frye characterized the action of the governor and council as a palpable and iniquitous [illegible]. He met but one democrat in congress who attempted to defend the action of the fusionists. The plot was hatched a month ago. Republicans will never see Daniel F Davis governor of Maine.

Arms Removed.

BOSTON Dec 26—The Bangor Whig and Courier says that the arms of Hersey Light Infantry of Old Town one of the state [illegible] companies were taken possession of by the fusionists last night between 11 and 12 o'clock, and removed from the company's armory to the residence of Lieu [illegible] commander of the company [illegible] the residence of the fusion [illegible] for governor.

To go to the Courts

BANGOR Dec 26—[illegible] democrats have united in an appeal to the governor [illegible] the suggestion of Governor Morrill [illegible] to the court [illegible].

Quiet Restored.

[illegible], Dec 27—The [illegible] [illegible] the excitement [illegible] in the city [illegible] the removal of the rifles of the Old Town company from the armory by the fusionists last night caused much comment and comparison with the lack of any disposition by any representatives here to disturb munitions at the arsenal or armory.

Military Order.

Lieutenant Colonel Daniel White of the city who succeeds to the command of the state militia by the resignation of Colonel Matlock has issued circulars to the different companies expressing the hope that all present troubles will be peacefully settled and asking reports of membership arms, etc.

A Card from the Executive Committee

At a meeting of the citizens' executive committee last evening the following was adopted:

To the Public. In view of the spontaneous uprising of our citizens at the sight of arms and ammunition being transported through our streets on Christmas day stealthily and without written authority of the purpose on behalf of the governor of the state of the consummation by force of the threatened crime against the decision of the majority as expressed at the polls the undersigned executive committee of citizens, at a meeting held this evening were unanimously of the opinion that while this uprising was but the natural expression of our citizens yet if our governor shall see fit to persist in this remarkable and alarming purpose of gathering munitions of war for use against the people the responsibility therefor may well be left upon him and the law abiding citizens of Bangor will do nothing by which they would incur any degree of the responsibility for the deplorable consequences which may ensue from turning the capital of the state into an armed camp. We therefore feel assured that there is no disposition on the part of the people to resist the execution of any order lawfully given by the governor for the removal from our city of any property belonging to the state. J S Wheelwright, Chas G Stearns, C A Boutelle, G B Lancaster, Silas C Hatch, E B Neely, Jno L Cutler, L J Morse, Whiting S Clark, Chas V Lord, Lysander Strickland, Henry Lord, H N Fairbanks, C V Crossman, B B Thatcher.

The Maine Business.

CHICAGO, Dec 25—A Tribune's Washington special says: Prominent republicans, who are in communication with party leaders in Maine counsel them to prevent violence at all hazards and to exhaust all lawful methods in securing redress against the great fraud their political opponents are attempting to perpetrate upon the people of the state, but under no circumstances to resort to physical force. Despite the alarming reports received here to-day regarding the excited condition of the public mind all over Maine the opinion in official circles is that the existing troubles will find a solution without bloodshed. If the exigency should arise and the lawful state authorities should invoke the assistance of the federal power to preserve the peace the request will doubtless be promptly complied with.

A Sort of Family Affair

A curious incident in connection with the Maine business was that Governor Garcelon and Representative Frye are brothers-in-law and the governor's daughter an estimable young lady is at present here spending the season with her uncle, Mr Frye and his family.

Petition from Clergymen.

PORTLAND, Dec 27—The principal Protestant clergymen of Portland unite in a petition to the governor to ask the advice of the supreme court. Bishop Neely and Rev Dr Hill are among the signers.

Encouragement.

NEW YORK Dec 27—Rodman M Price, ex governor of New Jersey and a California pioneer, writes to Governor Garcelon of Maine, commending his action. He says:

Having in view the principles of the democratic party, I most sincerely hope the constitutional grounds taken by your excellency will not only meet the full support of your people, but also the approbation of patriotic, honest and the best thinking men in our country and we of New Jersey hope that substantial thinkers of your state will adhere to the principles guaranteed by their forefathers and that they will not be intimidated by threats of any partisan power that has heretofore governed the state.

Not Assuring

BOSTON Dec 27—An Augusta, Maine special to the Herald says the bitter feeling and chance of trouble seems to increase rather than diminish. The governor's letter to ex senator Morrill does not say so much as at first sight it may appear. He expresses a willingness to refer points that have not already been adjudicated upon but it is understood he believes these points are extremely few and that he has the decision of court to back nearly every case. This leaves the hope for a peaceful settlement through Morrill's plans decidedly a faint one. Though the attempt was creditable it looks now as though nothing can prevent trouble on the assembling of the legislature but a square back-down on the part of fusionists, and how much chance there is of this one can judge as well as another. Men who do not encourage violence openly do not hesitate to say they fear and expect it. Congressman Frye's speech last night was not reassuring and congressman Reed thinks blood will be shed before the trouble is over. The excitement in country towns and villages grows more rapidly than in the cities, even. In one of them it is understood there is an excellent prospect of mob violence to-night but it may be prevented. Meetings of both parties to-night will be numerous and few speeches conducive to peace. To-morrow's sermons will be more warlike yet. Things are decidedly hot, considering that the mercury is below zero in the middle of the forenoon.

THE ISTHMUS RAILROAD

The Engineer Gives an Account of the Proposed Route to Connect the Two Oceans.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

NEW YORK Dec 27—[illegible] Brockley who [illegible] for Tehuantepec, says:

PREPARE THE NOOSE

A Nameless Crime Hinted at Charging the Utes with its Commission—The Duplicity of Ouray—Prepare for War

[illegible] the commission would [illegible] [illegible] principal [illegible] [illegible] believe that Ouray had the power to enforce the surrender of the Utes. He has [illegible] given up the hope that the Indians will surrender and is making preparations to start out, and Ouray was not reproached by him for the display of bad faith or his direct lying but was told by General Hatch that he would start upon the 28th for Alamosa and would remain one day at the station on the Cimmaron twenty-five miles distant. Should he choose to deliver up the Indians there upon the 29th they would be received. Ouray then began to entertain the commission with stories of men who had been frozen and lost in the effort to get out at this season—a childish plan to deter Hatch from leaving. He evidently fears the consequences to his tribe should Hatch leave without the prisoners and as he evidently cannot persuade or force the Utes to deliver themselves up. The last five days given to Ouray makes the sum total of 21 days given to the Utes. I make no predictions as to the result this time seeing that Hatch is determined the Utes may possibly decide to give themselves up, but whether they do or not Hatch will leave Sunday and if he leaves without the prisoners there will be war. A full list of the names of the twelve Utes who are to be tried at Fort Leavenworth it has been impossible to obtain from the commissioners heretofore and it has been equally impossible to ascertain when these twelve are to be tried for the testimony of the Meekers, as given to the press convicts only a few of them of the crime. This list is frequently referred to by the commissioners and attorney in connection with certain Indians and always as the Star list. What this list is I cannot say positively, but from hints dropped by members and stray remarks made by them when they imagined the reporters were not on the alert, I am confident the Star list contains the names of those Indians who committed a crime worse than murder or arson a crime which is spoken of only with bated breath, and which has not as yet been even hinted at by the newspapers. It is well known that the story of the women as given to the public and their testimony under oath differ widely and the crimes of which they accuse the Indians in their sworn testimony would suffice to hang any man of whatever color without the formality of a trial in the twinkling of an eye. That this list contains the names of those Indians who are accused of this nameless crime toward the defenseless women is not a sudden conclusion but one which has been arrived at by careful consideration and which will be fully supported when the trial of the miscreants takes place. Douglass and Persun are known to be two of the names contained in the list but the other names can only be obtained at the time of the trial.

EX ANT'S ANDIDACY

Wh the try has been most lavish ... welcome ... from his trip ar und the world enough has transpired to show that ... those who have been profuse ... them wel ... as an ex president and as a distinguished soldier would hail his ... the chief magistracy of the nation with a far different feeling And the objec ... to him are not confined to men who belong to the democratic party Aside from those republicans who have personal favor ... as the Blaine men the Sherman m ... the Washburne men etc there are a great many who think that Gen Grant's plan of conducting the civil service of the government can be much improved Standing at the head of the nation for eight years he was compelled to act in such a way as gave offense to a great many prominent men in his own party who would oppose his re election with great earnestness

Again a very large class of the American people object to anything which indicates that this country requires any personality in its government and though we may consider it merely as the croakings of pessimists there are many who openly express the feeling that Gen Grant's election for a third term would be a step farther toward admitting the essentially of one man to the nation than is advisable or necessary at this time Many of this class of men would support General Grant quite as readily as they would any man who had filled the office twice already but they are uncompromisingly opposed to a third term in any shape. Altogether it is safe to say that while there are a great many zealous earnest and hard working republicans who would labor most strenuously to secure Gen Grant's election in case he should be nominated there would also be found a large element which is already crystalized in its opposition to him because of his course during the eight years which he occupied the presidential chair This opposition would be found to be in a more united form against Gen Grant than against any other good man who might be nominated Against it all, however he would carry with him a class of men who would make a canvass in his behalf that to be successfully met by the democracy would require more skill and tact than the leaders of that party have recently shown themselves to possess Harmonious, earnest work on part of the republicans will carry their candidate through to success but the task may be made more difficult by the selection of a man against whom the opposition in the party has been aggregated by past events We have no ambition in the direction of writing up a boom or writing down any other man's boom, but have said so much only to attract the attention of the republicans of the country to facts which it seems ought to have some weight in shaping the important work of the national convention in June next.

EUROPEAN IMMIGRANTS

The dull times which have prevailed in England and Germany for a long time have had the effect to give an impetus to emigration to the United States, and it is reported that during the month of November 14 600 immigrants were landed at Castle Garden showing an increase of 8855 over the corresponding month of last year A large majority of these we are told are English factory operatives, who, owing to the great decline in the trade of English manufactured goods have resolved to try their fortunes in this country This decline is attributable solely to the attempt to compete with American goods which led to the manufacture of cheaper articles and induced our British cousins to make up for the difference by adulterating their goods till the character of their Lancashire and Burnley fabrics was ruined. It is probable that the cotton trade in England has seen its best days and that it will never again reach the magnitude to which it had attained in 1870-73

The same is true of agricultural labor which commands very considerably greater wages in this country than in any of the countries of Europe The arable lands of the old country have long years ago been brought under cultivation, and much of it is now worn out. There are broad prairies in America, the soil of which is very productive, and this fact the poorly paid and hard worked laboring men of Europe have learned much more fully than was known among them a few years ago Becoming possessed of this knowledge it is not likely that these laborers will remain in that country at a bare pittance when by coming to America they can get better pay, with a chance of becoming owners of the land which they cultivate, and gain a social and political station which they could not hope to reach in the land of their birth

While the increased immigration to this country which this state of affairs has induced, will at first result in the over crowding of the towns and cities, it will at last work out a more general development of the resources of this country which are abundantly extensive to support all the population we are likely to have for the next century The immigrants naturally settle first in the large cities, but many of them who prefer a life of labor will be forced out into the country

The Scottish Banking Magazine gives an elaborate article on the agriculture of Great Britain, from which we gather the following, There are in Great Britain and Ireland about 300,000 land owners and 1,000,000 tenants and over 1,500,000 farm laborers. Including their families 8 500,000 people, or one fourth of the population, are dependent upon agriculture for a living Farming and grazing lands are valued at $9,500,000,000, the rentals being $335 000 000 About $2 000 000 000 are invested by tenantry in stock manure and implements. The total number of acres under cultivation this season has been in Great Britain, 12,062,371 in Ireland 3,150 000 Six million acres outside the above estimate, marsh and swamp lands, are usually cut fo hay, but long-continued wet weather ruined the crop this season The stock in the United Kingdom is estimated at 10 000 000 cattle, 34,000 000 sheep and 500 000 hogs. Heavy losses have fallen upon the farmers, who retain but one-eighth of the amount of production, or $165 000 000 and they are greatly discouraged

The conduct of the Maine democrats excites more open admiration in the south than it does anywhere else Most northern papers of any conservative pretensions denounce it as shameless But in the south it is considered by democratic organs as one of the masterpieces of democracy which has been achieved in the north for a long time The Richmond Dispatch remarks commendingly that Maine is not without true blue democra which is just about the way the republicans understand it The style of politics in Maine is indeed true blue democratic So were the Yazoo hooting and the Chisholm massacre The country is very rapidly acquiring an accurate conception of the whole democratic creed

The man who puts Maine down as a strong democratic state in the presidential election because a set of rascals have been able for the time being to thwart the will of the voters in the selection of state officers will probably soon turn his attention to Iowa and s w ... there is a chance there or the same party The ... democrats are now jubilant ... the ... presidents ... campaign ... east ... 30 ... majority ... statesmen and the ... more clearly ... Maine district

... law of Ma ... Before the election ... fail the ... required by law This was done ... order to ... the defective lists ... the ef ... steal the state So it seems that the plan was long ago ... perpetrate the wrong a fact which adds to its criminality and ... the character of the act from a ... partisan ... outrage upon the people ...

Jay Gould now controls the following railroads ... Kansas ... Wabash St Louis Kansas City and Northern Missouri Pacific St Joseph and Denver Colorado Central Utah Southern Utah Northern St Louis and San Francisco ... and Danville Chicago and Paducah ... and Strawn Denver and South Park Denver and Rio Grande Hannibal and St Joseph Denver Pacific Detroit and Eel River and a few minor roads

The New Albany Ledger Standard the most influential democratic journal in Indiana is out in favor of the importation into Indiana of 20 000 Kentucky democrats to be placed upon farms and employed as laborers or skilled artisans The Ledger-Standard does not hesitate to say that its chief object in favoring such immigration is to meet and overcome by democratic votes such negro immigration as may be brought into the state from the south

The tempest in a teapot among the democrats of Oregon, to which a correspondent refers is being pretty well ventilated by newspaper writers just now As the fight is not ours we are entirely willing that the parties interested have full liberty in pen stilettoing each other The breach is already so wide that the republicans will have an easy walk over in the contest in Oregon in 1880

Congressman De La Matyr of Indiana who holds the balance of power in the delegation from that state and who in the present position of parties would be able to elect a republican president in case the next election were to be thrown into the house says I voted for President Hayes, and, if the choice lay between Hayes and Tilden I should do so again

John A Logan thinks all the national conventions will be held in Chicago, after the hospitality of the citizens has been tested next June The Indianapolis delegation who went to the metropolis of the lakes to see General Grant, and were charged fifteen cents a glass for beer have not near so exalted an idea of her hospitality as Senator Logan

The Indians in the state of Chihuahua Mexico have killed about 800 people during the past two months and the governor is offering $100 for each Indian scalp brought to him The insurgents who have been fighting the government for some time now find better picking among the red skins

NEWS NOTES FROM THE SOUND

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE TO THE OREGONIAN

SEATTLE Dec 24 1879

The Christmas trade of this season is not nearly so large as heretofore due to the dull times and the general scarcity of money

The schooner Lottie of Port Townsend now undergoing repairs in this city will leave shortly for Neah Bay where she will be engaged in seal hunting during the remainder of the winter and coming spring

The present freeze [illegible]

The steamer [illegible] coal [illegible]

Hon W H White representative in the last territorial legislature [illegible] was presented on Tuesday evening [illegible] elegant gold watch and chain valued at $[illegible] [illegible] presented to Hon W H White by his [illegible] friends Seattle W T Xmas [illegible] The presentation speech was made by [illegible]

The committee in charge of the fund for the construction of the Skagit river [illegible] advertise for sealed proposals for [illegible] to be considered on Saturday next. The new steamer now being built by the [illegible] in this city it is intended will make her run from this city to the portage the head of navigation on the Skagit in a day and a half From there by the proposed trail it will be but 23 miles to the mines On the 18th inst snow was [illegible] inches deep at the portage and still falling

Munchausen has been completely outdone by the representative of a Portland paper who recently visited this city and wrote up the town Each paragraph contains some fresh surprise as for instance we are told that $3000 has been raised here for the construction of a trail from Fort Hope to the Skaggit mines a distance of 80 miles and that direct steamboat communication with Hope is now maintained from this city Again it is stated that one of "the most extensive saw mills on the sound has a capacity for cutting 25 000 feet of lumber per day and employs 10 men that the Seattlite is a good natured individual somewhat rough and uncouth yet a gentleman who is constantly fed with the finest of Puget sound salmon Then to top off the whole thing the writer peers into the vortex of a very hot corner in Seattle's hell furnace of debauchery and dissipation and sees passing before his heated vision a multitude of Skagit miners It may be all very well but some how our people can't exactly appreciate this sort of live journalism

THE RESPONSIBLE PARTY

PORTLAND, Dec 2[illegible] 1879

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

An article which appeared in a late number of THE OREGONIAN entitled Whitewash and signed "Peter Parley contains in its first lines a charge which I wish to deny I am the author of several articles appearing in THE OREGONIAN and Standard signed Anxiety Judge Bellinger has had no hand in the composition nor is he the instigator of those articles.

The articles in question were written by me while I was confined at home by a chronic indisposition An unabashed and shameful assault was being made by a blatant scribbler who in some evil moment has been taught to hold a pen and form letters upon some among the best of our citizens, and as no one seemed at leisure to make a reply to his shameless slanders I concluded to give the gentleman some employment at home I succeeded beyond my utmost anticipations Mr Dolt it seems regards me as a foeman unworthy of his steel or else as is more likely he seizes upon this pretext of gratifying both his spite and vanity by accusing Judge B of entering it to a newspaper controversy with him

Let me again deny any participation of Judge Bellinger in this correspondence and assert my full and absolute responsibility in all shape and manner for the articles signed "Anxiety"

CLAUDE THAYER

A CORRECTION.

PORTLAND, Dec 27 1879

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Under the caption of Whitewash a correspondent in THE OREGONIAN of this date, who adopts as his nom de plume that of a great story teller assumes to determine the motives which influenced about one half of the members of the Portland Bar in refraining from signing the so-called Barr testimonial to Judge Bellinger The undersigned desires to state that "Peter Parley is mistaken in supposing that all these failing to sign were influenced by the feelings which he inferentially attributes to them Some—nay we think most—regarded the whole affair as a tempest in a teapot, and as none of their business They thought Judge Bellinger's character for honesty ability and integrity needed no such certificate as the testimonial which to them appeared to be rather questionable in taste

GAMBLING

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

[illegible]

All this applies to the act of raffling in this community as well as in New York It is practice is as much against the laws of Oregon as against those of the empire state. It is an insidious and dangerous form of gambling corrupting our youth and preparing the way for an entire abandoned and reckless character We see frequent advertisements of this form of gambling as if it were an allowed or tolerated thing Why is this so What would be thought of a man who advertised an opium smoking den or a lewd or licentious resort? And yet why may one law breaker advertise his unlawful and demoralizing calling more than another? The enactments of the legislature of Oregon after forbidding gambling of every sort make it the especial duty of each district attorney sheriff constable, city or town marshal and police officer to inform against and diligently prosecute any and all persons whom they shall have reasonable cause to believe to be guilty of the violation of these laws When these violations of law are publicly advertised in the newspapers and scores of persons are known to take part in them one would think that some of these officers might have reasonable cause to believe somebody to be guilty

Please then Mr Editor while you are putting forth your influence against lotteries extend the same to gambling by raffles as well and save our young people especially from this corrupting vice Yours,

CALIFORNIA.

Meeting of Mining Trustees.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 26.—The conference of the trustees of Crown Point, Belcher, Alpha, Bullion, Exchequer, Confidence, Consolidated Imperial, Challenge and Kentuck mining companies was held this afternoon to consider the proposition for the working of the above mines through Yellow Jacket shaft. All the mines except Kentuck were represented. A proposition was submitted by Yellow Jacket, but as it did not include the element of wear and tear to the machinery, it was referred to several superintendents for estimate of such expense to be added, with the request to report as soon as practicable. The amended proposition will then be again submitted and each company will act for itself in accepting or rejecting the same. The plan was informally discussed, and the general opinion was that it would be for the interest of the stockholders thus to economize working expenses of these non-producing southern mines.

Mining Stocks.

The Pacific and California boards are in session to-day, but the attendance is very small and transactions light. At the Pacific's session, the principal inquiry was for Yellow Jacket, which sold at $9½ and $9¾, otherwise stocks were about at Wednesday's rates, with a tendency to weakness. In the second session the market had a firmer tone. The closing prices were as follows: Best and Belcher $10¾, California $3 60, Chollar $5½, Gould and Curry $4 40, Mexican $16¼, Ophir $16¼, Hale and Norcross $6¾, Sierra Nevada $17½, Union Consolidated $40⅞ and Yellow Jacket $9½.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—The market opened quietly at the Pacific Exchange this morning. There was no material change in the prices. The favorite for speculation was Yellow Jacket. The closing prices in the morning informal session were as follows: Ophir 16½, Mexican 16¼, G & C 4½, B & B 10¼, S Nev 18¼, Union Con 41, Savage 4½, Cala 3¼, Con Va 3¼, Chollar 5¼, H & N 6¼, Potosi 2¾, Overman 5¼, Crown Point 2½, Jacket 10, Con Imperial 35c, Caledonia 1¼, Julia 1¾, Utah 7¾, Alpha 9, Belcher 2¾, Bullion 3¼, Exchequer 2½, Justice 1, Alta 2¾. The second session of the board was quiet and no changes in prices occurred.

Will they Ever Divide?

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 27.—In the matter of the O'Brien estate, which came up before Referee Wm. A. Stuart this morning, Mr. Gager, confidential clerk of the firm of Flood & O'Brien, filed the memorandum of W. S. O'Brien's account on Flood & O'Brien's books from May 1, 1878, to September 13, 1878. On the debtor side are, besides a number of items of minor note the following: Balance of account, $1,022,623 35; 3-16 of sales of California stock, $94,865; 3-16 of sales of Consolidated Virginia stock, $15,414; 3-16 of sales of Pacific Mill and Mining Co., $163,328 23; 3-16 of sales of California stock, $90,061 20; total, $2,051,475 56. On the creditor side are 7859 shares of Yellow Jacket, $201,318 42; 8793 shares of Ophir, $399,318 70; to cash paid executors, $1,000,000; balance, $450,176 21; total, $2,051,475 56. Mr. Gager also took the stand and testified that the $450,000 balance mentioned in the memorandum was deposited in the Nevada Bank, with the exception of $100,000 paid to them since September 13th. When asked why it had never been paid over to the executors he said they had never asked for it; they could have it when they wanted it. He stated that the Yellow Jacket and Ophir stock were on hand when O'Brien died. Three-sixteenths was his share. The $350,000, or thereabouts, now deposited in the Nevada Bank, is not bringing in any interest to the estate.

Mr. Coleman, nephew of the late Wm. S. O'Brien, and one of the executors of the estate, testified that there was but one matter that was not included in the executor's account heretofore published. Those were matters with the firm of Flood & O'Brien. Some questions were asked concerning the business status and condition of Flood & O'Brien to which objection was raised and sustained. The testimony was similar to that of previous sessions. Inquiry will be resumed next Tuesday at 11 o'clock A. M.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Decision Reached.

SEATTLE, Dec. 28.—In the case of Yesler vs Colman Chief Justice Greene has at length rendered a decision denying Colman's application to vacate and set aside the judgment heretofore rendered by the district court in the case. The case was originally an action brought by Yesler to compel Colman specially to perform a contract to purchase what is known as the Seattle saw mill property. A decree in favor of Yesler was rendered by the district court, whereupon Colman appealed to the supreme court of the territory. The supreme court dismissed the appeal on technical grounds. Colman then made the present application to the district court, where the cause was first heard. The judgment against Colman now amounts to $62,950, and the only alternative left him is either to pay the judgment or take the chances of an appeal to the supreme court of the United States.

Steamer Sails.

The Pacific Mail S. S. Co.'s steamship Dakota sailed hence at six o'clock this morning for San Francisco, taking 500 tons of freight from various Sound ports, and a fair passenger list. The freight consists principally of barrels, staves, oats, hides and hoop poles.

Coal Mine Sold.

Dr. Henry sold a portion of his interest in the Carbon river coal mine to San Francisco parties for $10,000.

A Contract Let.

At a meeting of the Skagit trail committee this evening, bids were received for the construction of a pack trail from the head of navigation on the Skagit river to the new gold mines. The bid of Joseph Day for $1650 being lowest, he will receive the contract.

The weather is clear and cold.

BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Sailed.

VICTORIA, Dec. 26.—The steamship Empire sailed for San Francisco yesterday afternoon.

Telegraphic Communication.

At a meeting of the council of the board of trade, held on Tuesday last, a resolution was passed setting forth that the frequent interruptions in telegraphic communication between this province and the outer world result most detrimentally to the commercial interests of the city, and suggesting that steps be taken to improve the existing telegraphic system. A copy of the resolution will be forwarded to the minister of public works, at Ottawa.

Dead.

M. Eugene Boulett, who for several years acted in some capacity here for the French Consul at San Francisco, died yesterday morning at the French hospital, in this city.

The Fraser River Steamers.

The Fraser river steamers Reliance and Royal City which were caught in the ice on Thursday last, are still tied up at Farr's landing. They will remain there until the weather moderates. They have as yet sustained no injury, and being in a good position will in all probability suffer no damage when the ice breaks up.

Snow Storms.

There have been very heavy snow storms in the interior and the Cariboo road is blocked and all travel stopped and business at a standstill. Mails up and down the country are delayed.

Shipping.

The following vessels are amongst those on the way to this port: The Swedish bark Granger, from China, coming in ballast to Messrs. Stahlschmidt & Ward; ship Landseer, from China, bark Victoria and bark William Hales.

Perilous Position.

On Sunday last Mr. Johnson started from his residence across Fraser river to come to town in a boat, but he had not gone far when the boat was nipped by ice and he and his companion were compelled to trust to its treacherous support. Two men, who witnessed the accident, went at once to the rescue, but their boat met a similar fate, and they too were left helpless on the drifting ice. Mrs. Johnson, seeing her husband and his three companions in such a perilous position, secured the services of a young lad and launched a third boat, and after a good deal of difficulty and danger had the satisfaction of bringing the four men safe to shore.

Must Make Amends.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—The U. S. steamer Nepsec, commander C. M. Schoomaker, at Norfolk, has been ordered without delay to Laguayre, Venezuela, to enquire into the circumstances attending the withdrawal or expulsion of agent Eckert at that port from Barcelona, to which place he had been sent on public duty. The Nepsec will touch at St. Thomas to take on board Eckert, who is reported a refugee. On completing this duty the Nepsec will return to Hampton Roads.

An Historian Dead.

LONDON, Dec. 26.—The death of Wm. Hepworth Dixon, the historian and traveler, and for many years editor of the London Athenæum, in his 59th year, is announced. The cause of his death was apoplexy.

English Reform in Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 26.—The following are some of the particulars in regard to the case of the priest who was sentenced to death for the translation of the bible into the Turkish tongue. In September, the police arrested a missionary for distributing religious tracts, but he was soon discharged, the police retaining a book in the Turkish language printed in London, containing a passage contrary to Islamism, and two manuscript pamphlets of the same character. On the day after the release of the missionary the priest who is now under sentence was arrested on charge of being the author of the above mentioned pamphlets, and was remanded for trial. Sir Austin Layard has for the last three months pressed a demand for the restitution of missionary's papers. Minister Layard announced that if his demands were not complied with he would ask Lord Salisbury for instructions and would suspend diplomatic communications with the Porte. Two notes, presented by Minister Layard, remaining unanswered, he again renewed his request on Monday last, but still received no answer. He sent a communication to the porte giving them three days in which to restore the missionary's papers, release the priest, dismiss the chief of police of Angora who ordered the arrest of the priest, and the military commandant of Van who, as well as [illegible] chief of police of Angora, [illegible] used insulting language. The latter have replied stating that the missionary is not a British but a German subject, and the report that the priest has been condemned to death is untrue, as he has only had a preliminary examination. The porte have also assured Minister Layard that the priest will be treated leniently. It is believed the matter will not lead to any serious consequence in view of the conciliatory disposition manifested by the porte.

Will Not Submit Quietly.

Rumor Denied.

LAHORE, Dec. 26.—Since Gen. Gough passed Latabund no news has been received from him. Rumors of his arrival at Cabul were premature.

The wire to-day was working as far as Gundamuck, but at night was interrupted between Peshawur and Jellalabad.

CANDAHAR, Dec. 26.—To-day being a Mahommedan festival, the fanatical portion of our population is much excited. Some mounted Ghazis ran a muck through the British camp. Gen. Tytler was wounded and four of the fanatics killed.

Gas Stocks.

LONDON, Dec. 27.—The Economist says that it seems as if another scare had set in in consequence of the telegrams reporting Edison's completion of his electric light. All gas companies suffered more or less. The heaviest decline being eight pounds per share and the smallest one pound.

The committee for distribution of the Duchess of Marlborough's relief fund has £6400 already available.

CHICAGO WHEAT.

The Cause of the Recent Advance.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—The grain market has been so completely under the thumb of the New York speculation ring that theories based on the receipts, shipments, demand and supply are necessarily wholly out of place and needless. With grain piling up here at the rate of from a million and a half to two million bushels weekly, with prices much lower in Liverpool and New York than here, taking freight charges into account, with No. 1 spring wheat selling a cent lower than No. 2, the anomalous market affords few opportunities for intelligent trading and none for justifiable prophecy.

What the ring intend to do with their large accumulation of property it would be impossible to say, but as they are reported to be financially able to take care of what comes, they may be able to carry prices to a point when they can let their wheat go without breaking the market so seriously as to impair their fortunes. Their friends here assert that such is their plan, but it is certain that in the present condition of the market it could not require any seriously depressing circumstance to bring about a sturdy break that would interfere seriously with the plans of extremists. On the other hand the "short" interest is trimming its sails very closely, and is afraid to bid against the combination lest some morning there be a great rise. A European war or a very bad stretch of wheat weather in the northwest would, in all probability, effect a strong advancement of prices.

Provisions are dependent entirely upon the strike, but prices have been tending higher under the pressure of small supplies. Sales were made during the week for the option as follows: Wheat, $1 32½@1 13½; corn, 40½@41½c; oats, 34½@36½c; pork, $13 27½@13 95; lard, $7 60@7 80. Closing February prices were: Wheat, $1 35; corn, 41c; oats, 36½c; pork, $13 80; lard, $7 75. Closing cash prices: Wheat, $1 33; corn, 40½c; oats, 35½c; rye, 80c; barley, 90@90½c; pork, $13 55; lard, $7 60@$7 75. Receipts for the week: Wheat, 589,000 bushels; corn, 959,000 bushels; oats, 207,000. Shipments: Wheat, $900,000 bushels; corn, 250,000 bushels; oats, 114,000 bushels. Receipts same time last year: Wheat, 44,300 bushels; corn, 339,000 bushels; oats, 163,000 bushels. Shipments: Wheat, 131,000 bushels; corn, 151,000 bushels; oats, 930,000.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit these diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of their miserable existence.
